National Apprentice Week

As part of National Apprentice Week, some apprentices from Redrow will be coming into school on Tuesday to help us improve the woodwork and plant bedding areas in the playground.

Online Safety

It now appears the press/social media reports about MoMo were in fact, a hoax. The article sent home, however does offer good advice for parents to help keep their child safe online.

Parking

So the coach can easily drive up Hunters Road on Wednesday morning, please park considerately and don't block the pavements or driveways around school.

Tower Wood

On Wednesday, arrive at school as normal but bring your suitcase into the school hall where it will be stored until the coach arrives. Please remember your packed lunch for Wednesday.

Baby News

Congratulations to Olivia in Year 6 who became an auntie to Phoenix.

Outside Achievements

Harrison in Year 5 and Riley in Year 3 received their brown and green belts respectively at Kick Boxing, Jessica M in Year 1 achieved her Stage 1 at swimming, Kayden in Year 2 won Man of the Match at football and Isobel in Year 2 won a trophy for trying hard at football. Well done to all of you.
