Tag Rugby Festival

Well done to our Y6 children who won the Sportsmanship Award at the Tag Rugby Festival earlier in the week. Year 3 and 4 also attended a Tag Rugby Festival and as ever did Lancaster Lane proud.

End of Year Trips

We are in the process of organising the end of year trips. Keep your eye on ParentMail for the information and we will endeavour to keep the price at under £15.

Bluebell Fairy Walk

18th May 2019, Brinscall Woods. 14:00 - 16:00
The annual magical fairy trail through the spectacular Brinscall bluebells returns! They will be stopping to make natural crowns on the way and then finishing up on site for refreshments and to make your very own peg fairy (or elf!) to take home. This is a family event - £7 per person for adults and children (under 3s are free if they're not participating - if you would like your under 3 to make a peg fairy you will need to buy a ticket), includes all refreshments and materials. Booking essential - tickets available via our website: www.wildwooddays.co.uk/events

Outside Achievements

Thomas in Y1 attended an Easter School at Chorley Football Club and received a trophy for the best penalty, Tilly in Y4 gained her Entertainer badge at Brownies and Dylan in Y3 won the Sportsmanship Trophy at First Kicks Football. Well done to all of you.

Year 1 looked at plants and transferred their observations into a drawing.

Reception using sweets for their maths work

Year 4 gathered ideas from Year 2 for their pop-up book design

Early Learners Pre-School

Early Learners children have been bug hunting in the garden.
