All dates for class assemblies and Christmas plays are on the calendar on the Calendar page of the school website. Year 1 will be performing their assembly for parents and grandparents on Tuesday, 15th October at 9.15am in the school hall. Everyone is welcome.

Staffing News

We say goodbye to our site supervisor Mr Berry on Friday, 27th September. He has worked in school since May 2016 and is leaving to take up a new position in maintenance at St Catherine's Hospice. We send a Lancy Lane farewell to him and wish him every success in happiness in his new role as well as thanking him for all the work he has done whilst working here. Farewell Mr Berry!

Scarecrow Festival

Unfortunately our scarecrows were not selected for a prize this year in the Clayton and Whittle Scarecrow Festival but we enjoyed taking part and will try again next year.

Outside Achievements

Keira in Y2 moved up to Stage 4 at swimming, Ruby in Y3 received a trophy for dancing and Kayden in Y3 . Well done to all of you.

Dave from Leyland Tennis Centre came into school to work with the children

Year 4 learning about sound in Science.

Year 2 learning about Life Processes in Science.

Early Learners Pre-School

Early Learners enjoyed a Macmillan Coffee Morning

Online Safety Tip

The NSPCC has produced excellent videos (please click on the link below) which are aimed at younger children to help them understand the implications of sharing information and personal information online. It's a child friendly way for parents to discuss this very important issue with their children.
