

Reading Raffle Tickets

If your child reads at home, they can fill in a raffle ticket and hand it in to their teacher. Look out for these in your child's bookbag, week beginning 30th January.

They have the chance to win a book prize, during the special assembly on Friday, 10th February.

During the assembly, there may even be a staff performance for the children to enjoy too! Family and friends are very welcome to come and join us in the hall at 9.10am.

Community Cinema Event

On Monday afternoon, the hall will become a cinema and the children can enjoy watching the movie Trolls and eating popcorn together. The PTA have kindly donated money for this special event but may we please ask for a small donation of £1 per child towards the cost. Please send this into school in a yellow money envelope which will be sent home with the cinema ticket. Thank you.

Kidnapping Parents!

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at 2.50pm, children will join in story times with different adults from around school. Your child will be bringing home an invitation, asking if they can 'kidnap' you, or a relative, to spend story time with them.

Look out on ParentMail...

Lancaster Lane Book Week 2017 Hocus Pocus!

6th-10th February

Soon, your child should receive their Hogwarts acceptance letter...

On Monday 6th, they can join Platform 9  $\frac{3}{4}$  and enter the magical world of Hogwarts...

At the start of the week, the sorting hat

will place all of the children into a Hogwarts team.

Will they be Gryfindorr, Slytherin, Hufflepuff or Ravenclaw?

A Magical Menu

Mrs Roberts and the kitchen staff are preparing a magical menu for Wednesday, 8th February, for those who place an order. Look out for a menu.

Dressing Up

For the whole week, Lancaster Lane will become Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry! Your child is invited to dress as a witch or wizard for the week.

The following site seems to offer competitive prices for items such as witch hats: www.wonderlandparty.co.uk

Alternatively, school can provide a plastic black cape for your child to decorate, which they can wear over their usual uniform.

A Guided Tour

After the assembly on Friday morning, any time between 9.45 and 12, we invite you to take a tour of the school so you can see all of the wonderful work the children have been doing during Book Week. Your child will lead the way!

Riddle Me This!

Children will search the school for hidden riddles and use the secret code to unscramble anagrams, revealing magical characters and items.

The More, the Merrier!

If you are able, please join us for any part of the week – the staff and children would love to have you in class.

Polyjuice & Other Potions!

Each class will join Mrs Yardley in the kitchen to concoct a magical recipe!

Book Swap

If your child has a book (in good condition) that they would like to swap with another child, then fill in a form which will be available in class and deposit in the Book Swap box in our entrance hall, before Thursday, 9th February.

What's Going on in Class?

Each class will focus on a particular storybook...

- Rec – Meg and Mog
- Y1 – Room on the Broom
- Y2 – Winnie the Witch
- Y3 – Harry Potter
- Y4 – The Witches
- Y5 – The Wizard of Oz
- Y6 – The Worst Witch

Share a Story

This is a favorite for many children each year... the older and younger children pair together and share a good book.

The Annual Book Quiz

The children will work in teams to answer questions about books they have read and work out different puzzles. Who will win this year?

Guess Who!

I wonder which staff member wishes they had a spell to make themselves invisible? Visit our display in the hall and try to guess who.

The Great Hall Banquet

On Friday afternoon, the children will celebrate with an end-of-week banquet, enjoying treats such as Hubblepuff Popcorn and Fizzing Whizbees. Each class will perform the magic spell they have composed.
